

Stacey Flowerdew
1621 U ST Apt 5
Sacramento CA 95818

Sep 1st 2018

Via ECFS
Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I am a consumer who deliberately picked a smaller, non corporate ISP. You seem to think I don't exist, or that Americans are satisfied with having industry after industry consolidated into monopoly after monopoly. I assure that is not the case. In my region we have the choice of two corporations or one independent company that has service in CA and MO. After spending more than a decade with the corporate monopolies I chose the underdog though initially it cost a little bit more. Do you know why? It wasn't for a faster internet, it was because it was a better company to do business with. They have far superior customer service and support net neutrality. I will sooner go with no internet than ATT or Comcast, corporate giants who want to crush free speech at its most infinitesimal level. I do not support unbundling and I do not support any agency or politician who wants to continue stripping consumers of choice.

Stacey Flowerdew